"A Fair Outside Is a Poor Substitute For Inward Worth."

Good health, inwardly, of the kidneys, liver and bowels,
is sure to come if Hood's Sarsaparilla is promptly used.

This secures a fair outside, and a consequent vigor in the frame, with the flow of health on the cheek, good appetite, perfect digestive power, blood, Catarrh—It has had no return of the catarrh which troubled me years ago, since I began using Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have been cured of my rheumatism, my liver and bowels, and my kidneys. I suffered for years with dyspepsia, with severe pains in my back and sides, and my bowels were constipated. Hood's Sarsaparilla made me strong and hearty." J. H. Barker, Main Street, Auburn, Me.

in his manhood, died last Tuesday and was buried Wednesday. Tom was 20 years old and a good, honest, upright young man. He died of pneumonia. Mrs. Annie Dean's husband is dying. He has about 35 little chickens doing fine. They seem to be as well satisfied as though they had a feathered mother to love them.

Cap. Stone Next Monday.
Much interest is being manifested in the speech which will be delivered in Hartford next Monday by Capt. W. J. Stone, of the Democratic club. His speech at Winchester Monday was a magnificent effort, and has created wide comment. He is expected to deliver the most finished Democratic speech delivered in the recent campaign. His views on the money question are exceptionally fine, and he clearly displays the silver charges that his silver record was not good. Those who delight in fine oratory and those who want to hear an old-time Democratic speech from an exceptionally able man, who is thought by his fellow countrymen, should hear Capt. Stone at the court house in Hartford next Monday.

WANTED.
Every woman in the town and county to attend an Millinery school on Saturday, March 30th, at 10 o'clock a.m. at the Court House, Hartford, Conn.

Six Pages This Week.
Our friend, the advertiser, has taken possession of our columns this week and in order to give our subscribers their usual quota of reading, we count out with six pages. The potency of an ad. in this Herald has long ago been established. It is the most powerful medium in this section who wishes to sell goods fast and make money, is quick to take advantage of its columns. They recognize in this Herald their best available means for their command to thousands of people in all sections and especially in Ohio country. In no other way could they talk to so many people so cheaply. We ask our readers that they give the claims of each advertiser the attention. These firms want your trade and they are paying out good money every week for the purpose of securing an audience with you. There can be no doubt that each merchant has peculiar advantages to offer you, and it will pay you to read their advertisements.

Notice.
I will be in my barber shop on Sundays from 7 till 10 o'clock a.m. and on later.
R. E. BELLINGTON.

R. T. Collins to the Front.
The biggest thing in this Herald this week, which it would seem unnecessary to call attention to, is the ad. of R. T. Collins, Hartford's new dry goods merchant. Mr. Collins has opened up a mammoth stock of dry goods in the Ohio County Bank building, where Fair & Co. formerly had forth, and is prepared to furnish the public with the very newest and best in his line at prices which he quotes you in his ad. He was born in Boston, where he has been summoned to the bedside of his mother, who died last Saturday.

Miss Alice Stafford, Carson & Co's.
Miss Alice Stafford, of Carson & Co's, Milliner, has just returned from Cincinnati, where she has been for the last six weeks posting herself on the latest novelties in Millinery goods.

Mr. William Chamberlain, of Nelson Creek, fell from a train near Central City last Friday night and fractured his skull. At last account he was sinking, and it was thought that his death would be a question of a few hours.

On statement of the prosecuting witness through the Commonwealth and County Attorney, made to the court in the case of the Corp. vs. Joseph Farnes at, Judge Owen reduced their bonds to $500, whereas Geo. Calloway and Delmar Adams previously furnished bonds of $1,000 and were released from custody.

Marriage License since our last report: H. G. Ford to Corinne McKim; R. F. Lewis to Mabel F. Barnett; Luther Clark to Mary D. Shaw; James Daniel to Katie Avery; Ross Howe to Alice Stewart; L. L. Maddox to Stella Ross; Chas. C. Blacklock to Sarah Ellis Landry; W. E. B. to Lulu V. Mitchell; James W. Hendricks to Annie O. Shill; W. T. Tooley to Sylvia M. Parrie; W. E. B. to Mary Marn, Donald Richardson to Lura E. Kelly.

Mr. A. J. Wilson and Miss Elizabeth Felt were married at the residence of Mrs. Felt, on Monday night, March 28, at 10 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. White, in the presence of all of their immediate relatives and friends. The contracting parties left immediately for Rockport, Ky., where they took a boat for Rochester, the home of the groom where he is engaged in a general banking business. This Herald extends congratulations.

Died, at his residence at Boston, last Saturday at 3 o'clock p.m., of heart failure, superinduced by general debility, Elias Blacklock, wife of Mr. W. B. Blacklock. The deceased, who was 61 years old, had been a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. White, after which the remains were interred in the family vault at the Mt. Hope cemetery. A large circle of friends and relatives. She leaves a husband and eleven children and a host of friends to mourn her death. This Herald extends condolences to the bereaved family.

DUNDEE, KY.
(Special to THE HERALD.)
March 28.—The Dundee, Ky. Co. are having a new addition built to their large store, for clothing and millinery department.

Miss Betty and Sallie Renfrow are in the city by special train, en route to their home in the West.

Death has again been in our midst. Mrs. Frank Felt, wife of W. B. Felt, died near here last Saturday morning of pneumonia. She leaves a husband and two children. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. White, after which the remains were interred in the family vault at the Mt. Hope cemetery. A large circle of friends and relatives. She leaves a husband and eleven children and a host of friends to mourn her death. This Herald extends condolences to the bereaved family.

BAZETOWN, KY.
(Special to THE HERALD.)
March 28.—Farness are greatly being disturbed by their work, owing to the unsettled weather.

Mr. J. H. Baise, who has been conferred to his room for some time, is convalescing. He will, it is expected, be in our town last Thursday.

Mr. W. H. Baise and T. H. Baise are in the East last week buying a stock of goods for the spring trade.

Mr. Carson Randall went to Morgan town last Monday to receive some goods.

This community was visited last Wednesday evening by the heaviest rain that has been here for several years. Quite a lot of hail also fell at the same time.

As Mr. Cox has withdrawn from the race for the nomination for Representative, we think some good solid Democrat should offer himself. Let us hear some nomination. We have plenty of good material, men who would serve their country's best interest with ability.

Notice.
The Fraternity of American Workmen will hold an open meeting at the court house next Friday night, March 31. Everybody interested in fraternal work is cordially invited. Speeches will be made by speakers.

R. L. Twiss, Esq.,
The Curative Properties, Strength and Effect of Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Regulator, will be given at the court house next Friday night, March 31.

Every Farm Fosted.
It is not necessary under the present law for a farmer to have a license to put up a board with the words "Fostered." Farmers should be careful about giving their usual quota of reading, we count out with six pages. The potency of an ad. in this Herald has long ago been established. It is the most powerful medium in this section who wishes to sell goods fast and make money, is quick to take advantage of its columns. They recognize in this Herald their best available means for their command to thousands of people in all sections and especially in Ohio country. In no other way could they talk to so many people so cheaply. We ask our readers that they give the claims of each advertiser the attention. These firms want your trade and they are paying out good money every week for the purpose of securing an audience with you. There can be no doubt that each merchant has peculiar advantages to offer you, and it will pay you to read their advertisements.

GAPT. W. J. STONE,
Candidate for Governor, will address the people of Ohio county in the Court House at Hartford on the first Monday in April, County Court day. The people should hear him, as he is an able statesman and a man of spotless character.

Given up by Four Doctors.
Bever Dam, Tenn.—My daughter, after being treated by four of the best doctors in the city, was nearly dead. A neighbor recommended Foley's Kidney Cure, and I bought a bottle. I used it and she was cured. I feel well now and she is well. I would have lost her if it was not for Foley's Kidney Cure. I feel well now and she is well. I would have lost her if it was not for Foley's Kidney Cure.
